Riverside High School
Louisburg, North Carolina

Foreword

With our school year swiftly closing, we pause to get a final glimpse of the happiness and friends we've had at Riverside.

The sound of happy voices, the spirit of good sports, the molding of ideals and inspirations-all blend into our high school experiences.

We, the Annual Staff, are proud to present to you our 1965 edition of the Riviera. This book has caught glimpses here and there, so that in years to come the activities of this school will not fade from memory.

In Your Honor

To our Dean of Girls, Miss L. S. Bradshaw, whose interest has been in the improvement of our lives; whose love and encouragement have been inspirational, and whose never ending devotion has made our years of high school pleasant, we salute you.

Words cannot express our appreciation for your various contributions; but to show, in a small measure, how much we love, honor and cherish you, we respectfully dedicate the Riviera of 1965.

Principal's Challenge

Dear Seniors:

In every battle, I am informed that there is a beginning or "jumping off" point. You have just completed one of the skirmishes in the battle of life. Because you have been successful thus far, does not indicate that you have finished or won the fight. In this, I would admonish you to remember the time-worn assertion: "The race is not to the swift, but to him who endureth to the end."

Best Wishes,

C. A. Harris

Again, we congratulate the Senior Class on its Annual. The Riviera has become a part of our tradition here and we are happy to encourage all those who have had a part in its making. This is not merely a recording of the activities of our school but it represents a routine of work for boys and girls who are looking toward leadership in all efforts and movements for the building of a great citizenship.

As you will see in these pages, Riverside High School has as its aim the promotion of character, culture and courtesy.

Boys'

Students who attend Riverside may be divided into two distinct groups, boys and girls. Nothing can be done about that. Students may be scholastically classified as good and not so good. What can be done about that? In most classes, girls outrank boys in their achievement. The girls have done something about that. Men will soon wake up to find women better qualified for the better paying jobs. Boys, it is high time that you wake up and do something about that!

Our Parents Speak

P.T.A. President

To the Class of 1965 - Congratulations upon the completion of a mile-stone in life - Graduation from high school.

As you stand on the threshold and look back, your heart is both happy and sad. There is happiness for the goal you have obtained, and sadness at leaving cherished memories that have endeared you to your Alma Mater. But you must not linger too long in retrospect, for the race is just beginning. This is only the completion of the first step in the preparation of the opportunities that lie ahead for you. For this period in which you live offers a privilege of service to any person who is well prepared.

Through your continued sacrifices and determined efforts to achieve perfection in whatever you undertake to do in life you may help your community to find a solution to its many perplexing problems.

As you move on to blaze new trails - surely you will pause to cherish memories of your four years at Riverside, and by so doing - pledge new interest and loyalty toward helping to make your Alma Mater a place of which you can ever be proud.

Joseph L. Strickland

Our P.T.A. Queen

Mrs. Josephine Perry

Numerous activities have been organized with a view to making the community more knowledgeable on school problems.

Our P.T.A. is one of these organizations. It seeks to unite the forces of the home, the school, and the community, on behalf of children and youth.

The school and the parents work together on various projects for the welfare of the community. Their spirits and cooperation were exhibited in our 50th State Rally, a fund raising activity for the school's Activity Bus and newly constructed Lunchroom. It was at that rally that Mrs. Josephine Perry was chosen our P.T.A. Queen for raising the largest amount of money.

Class Poem

When you come to the end of a perfect day,
And you sit alone with your thought,
While the chimes ring out with a song so gay
For the joy that this school has brought,
Do you know what one's graduation day
Can mean to a happy heart
When the sun goes down with a flaming ray
And dear friends have to part?

Well this is the end of a perfect day,
The end of one journey too,
But it leaves thoughts that are big and strong,
And wishes that are kind and true,
For memory has painted this perfect day
With colors that will never fade,
And we find at the end of this perfect day
That we hate to leave friends that we have made.

by—Charlotte Blaney

Song

It's a time for joy, a time for tears, a time we'll treasure thru the years
We'll remember always Riverside High School. At the Senior Prom we danced 'til three, and then you gave your heart to me
We'll remember always Riverside High School.
Tho' we leave in sorrow all the joys we've known,
We can face tomorrow knowing we'll never walk alone.
When the ivy walls are far behind, no matter where our path may wind,
We'll remember always Riverside High School.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class, being of sound mind and good disposition and, considering it is fairly well settled that we are to graduate this year, do hereby devise, give, and bequeath our personal belongings and peculiarities to the following persons, in this our first and last will and testament.

- To Julius Height, David Trader's ability as a bluffer.
- To Agnes Jeffreys, William Williams' popularity with the faculty.
- To Betty G. Dunston, Hattie Debnam's eye make-up.
- To anyone at all, Holmer Rodwell's drag with his buddies.
- To James Bowden, James Keith's luck in love.
- To James Manley, James Leonard's position on the football team.
- To Queen Perry, Fannie Perry's dignity and studiousness.
- To Brenda Williams, Sandra Hazelwood's vim, vigor, and vitality.
- To Judy Hill, Mary H. Williamson's seat in Mrs. Keck's room.
- To Quinton Morgan, Washington Cheek's height.
- To Patricia Gill, Rosa Neal's everlasting friendship.
- To Linda and Gwendolyn Baldwin, Brenda Baldwin's chatter.
- To John Bowden, Earnestine Newell's admiration.
- To Tony and Walter, Charlotte Blaney's long digits.
- To Brenda Bullock, Carrie Evans' ability to say "no" at the right time.
- To Elva Johnson, Ruth Smith's night-in-gale voice.
- To Linda Richardson, Rachel Clifton's ability to sew.
- To Harvey Hartsfield, Carolyn M. Johnson's friendship.
- To Mary Hawkins, Barbara Hawkins' versatility.
- To Louis Solomon, Mary J. Williams' quietness.
- To Lucy and Detroit Chavis, Maryland Chavis' "Parlez-vous francais".
- To Delores Green, Gwendolyn Perry's freckles.
- To James Perry, Bessie Perry's slenderizing diet.
- To Rosa Perry, Thomas Wilkins' will to succeed.
- To Audrey Battle, Sarah Davis' knowledge of truth.
- To Martha Gill, Gloria Gill's fickle-mindedness.
- To Edith Harris, Ann Harris' baby voice.
- To Bernice Davis, Beaulah Burt's intelligence.
- To her sisters, Barbara Jones' seat in Mrs. Keck's room.
- To Sidney Manley, Agnes Meeks' courage to take Physics.
- To Charles Green and Weldon Solmon, Carrie Burwell's split emotions.
- To Earl Hampton and Julia Hawkins, Wilma Perry's figure.
- To Elizabeth Strickland, Minnie Strickland's inertia.
- To John Fogg, Roger Solomon's comic books.
- To Shirley Burwell, Bessie Burwell's coiffure.
- To Walter Brown, John Spivey's reputation with the girls.
- To his cousin Herbert, Joseph Allen's money.
- To Tommy Conway, Wesley Hawkins' position as captain of football team.
- To Fannie Monroe, Anna Richardson's bow-legs.
- To John Bowden, David Massenburg's many failures.
- To Patricia Gill, Mary Pettiford's hair styles.
- To Betty Hargrove, Joyce Wilkins' pleasant disposition.
- To his brother, Moses Brown's "sweeter than thou" personality.
- To Annie Mae Hayes, Thomas Spivey's "self-esteem".
- To Donna Kay and Danny Ray, Clara Alston's "stairway to the stars".
- To her sisters, Mary H. Foster's tall reflection.
- To Elsie Jones, Ruby Jones' physique.
- To James Davis, Cleo Kingsberry's love life.
- To Barbara Perry, Herman Neal's ability to think.
- To Lorena Alston, Mary Alston's Monday morning gossip.
- To Carolyn and Shirley Jones, Annie Wilder's thoughtfulness.
- To Rufus Alston, John Alston's bus route.
- To Anthony, Tryone and Carita, Carolyn Cheeks ability to be silent.
- To Clara M. Johnson, Mary A. Smith's beau.
- To any interested person, Presley Ward's 409 information.
- To Joseph and Phillip, Joyce Nicholson's typewriting speed.
- To June Conway and Melvin Alston, Ervin Alston's honor medals.
- To Maxine Stokes, Dorothy Davis' peculiar way of speaking French.
- To Bessie Spencer, Dorothy Hayes' hot seat in Government.

If there be any property of ours which we have not bequeathed, take it, use it, and enjoy it to the fullest extent.

Dear Old Riverside

ALMA MATER

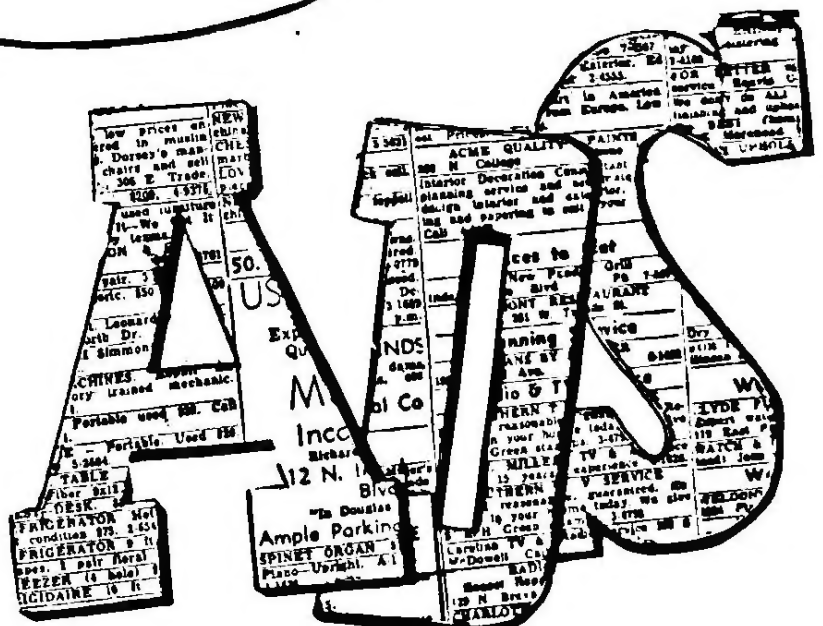

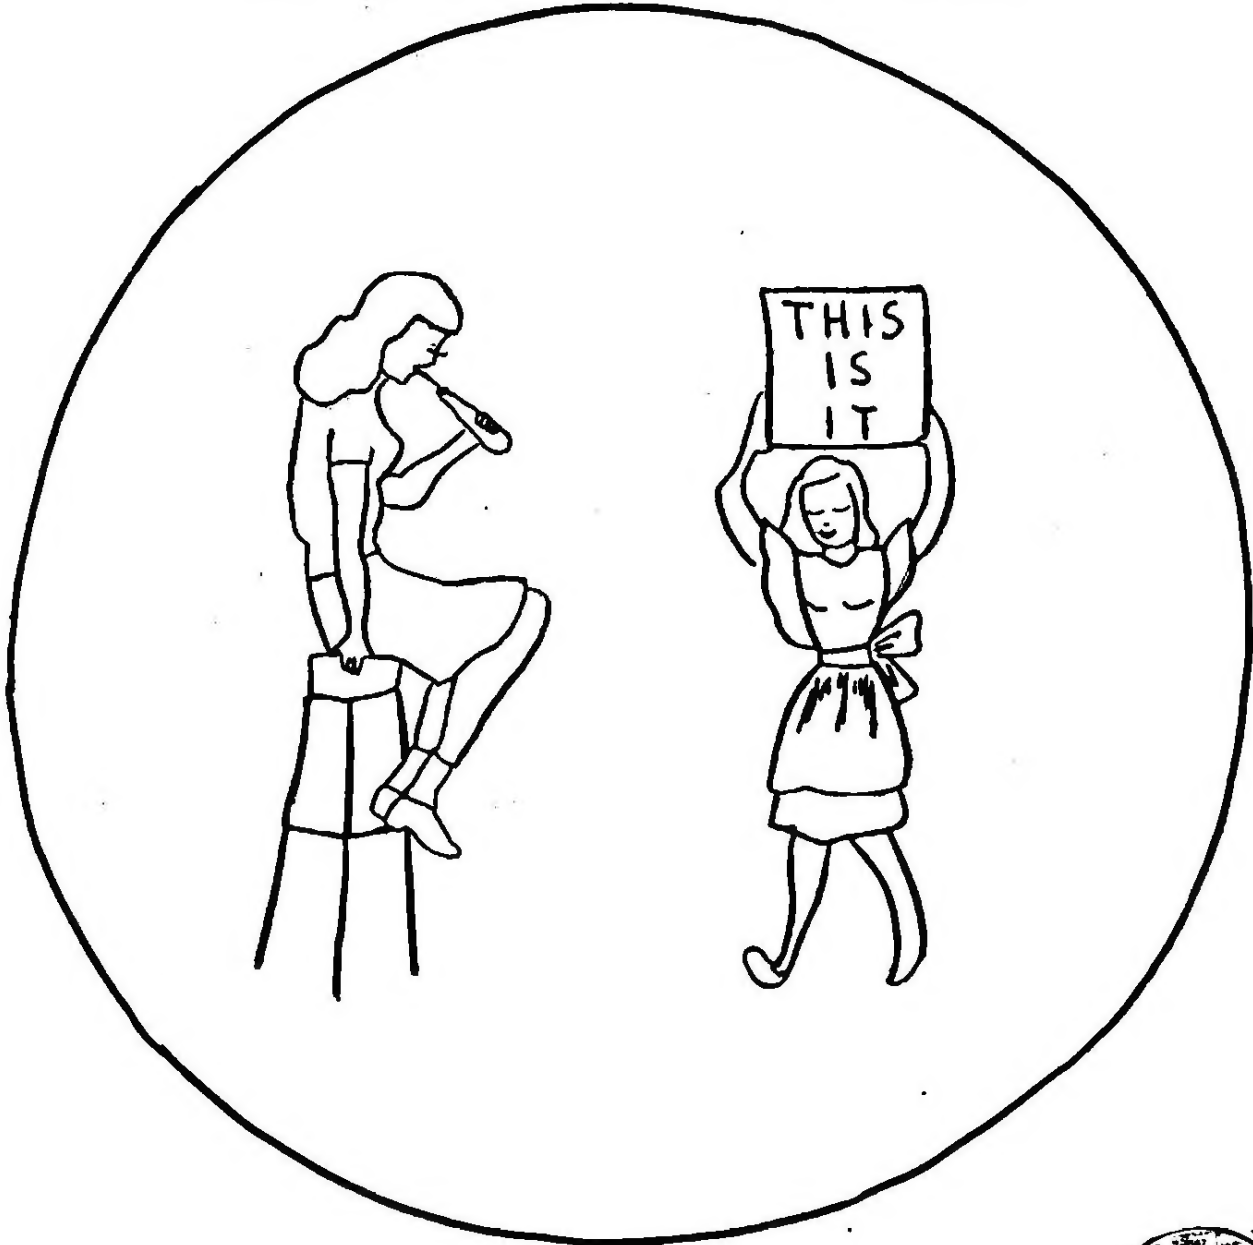

1. There's a school we'll Cherish e-ver, By the River—side.
 2. Riverside's name we'll Keep un-su-lled, In our work and play.

In our hearts she'll reign for-e-ver, Be our fond-est pride, Many lessons—
 E-ver mind-ful of her hon- Serve her eve-ry way, Oh the years we

She has taught us, Hon-or, faith and Truth. Many joys she too has brought us, Glorified our youth.
 Spent at Riverside, we will'n'er for- get, When we pass be- yond her guidance, They'll inspire us yet.

Chorus
 Sons and daughters, sound her praises,
 Sound them far and nigh,
 Sing our love for dear Old Riverside,
 Dear Old Riverside High.

Thanks to the many business firms of Louisburg, North Carolina and surrounding areas who have placed ads in the 1965 edition of the Riveria. The staff of this book wishes to express its sincere appreciation to establishments which have helped to make this yearbook possible.
